

Canadian Summers

Elaine Seavey

Canadian Summers is the first of a five-book series entitled "The Maverick Series". Each book covers a different geographic area, telling of the "adventures and misadventures" my husband and I experienced during 25 years of RV travels across US, Canada and Mexico. Canadian Summers is about the summers spent in British Columbia, exploring small towns, back roads and remote fishing lakes. There are also stories of interesting stops in other provinces, including a trip across Eastern Canada and through Nova Scotia.

Living fulltime in an Airstream trailer towed by a pickup truck, boat mounted atop, the author shares the adventures of several summers spent exploring Canada from coast to coast.

Born in Minnesota, while married with four children, I earned a Master's Degree in Art. Creating an elementary art program for a school in Wisconsin, I wrote the art curriculum for grades 1-7. For ten years, teaching 700 students, I submitted numerous articles regarding our more unique projects, which were published in a National monthly magazine for Art educators. In 1979, the family grown, we retired early. With a boat atop our pickup, towing an Airstream trailer, we began a full time RV lifestyle. For 25 years we traveled across US, Canada and Mexico. Winters are now spent in Benson, AZ. Summers are still spent traveling.
